Employers Against Domestic Violence

(Mintz Levin)

Employers Against Domestic Violence (EADV)SM is a proactive collaboration of Massachusetts-based businesses which consider domestic violence a serious workplace issue and recognize the need to respond to it. Spearheaded in 1996 by the law firm of Mintz, Levin, Cohn, Ferris, Glovsky and Popeo, P.C., the membership of EADV consists of over 90 public and private employers representing advertising, retail, technology, law and law enforcement, health care, insurance, professional sports, and city, state and federal government. Our mission is to educate employers about the financial, legal and psychological impact of domestic violence in the workplace, and to identify resources and formulate best practices for prevention, education and outreach. Collectively, EADV aims to create more productive workplaces which are intolerant of domestic violence and safe and supportive for victims and families.
