Liz Claiborne Inc.

Since 1991, Liz Claiborne Inc. has been proactively working to end domestic violence through an awareness, education and prevention program. The campaign, which is known by its tagline, "Love is not abuse," has included public service announcements; t-shirts, free educational materials, posters and brochures; fundraising; and the forging of partnerships with local retailers and community groups. Liz Claiborne Inc. designs and markets an extensive range of fashion apparel and accessories for women, men, teens, children and infants. The Company also markets fragrances for women and men. The more than 29 brands in the company's portfolio are available around the world.
